October B.E. 2556 (2013)

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee of the 9th ISFFEI, I would like to inform that early bird registration was ended on 30 September 2013. Accordingly, the interested participants have to pay registration fee at the regular rate of the symposium.

In the meantime, I would like to convey few announcements that deadline of abstract submission has been extended until 31 October 2013. For abstract format, please kindly follow author instruction on www.fruitflythailand.com and upload to system on registration page at step 4 (7) and (8). Abstract consideration and selection will start from the 1 November 2013 by the Organizing Committee and the International Fruit Fly Steering Committee. You will be informed of the selection result in December 2013.

With regard to the hotel reservation at the Montien Riverside Hotel, I kindly suggest that all delegates reserve the room directly as soon as possible on registration page step 3: hotel reservation. This will help avoid any unforeseen problem since other events will be organized at the same period at this hotel.

With best regards.
